

Adult Education Evening Courses

Care Provision & Practice – (FETAC/QQI Level 5)

Cost	€220
Duration	10 Weeks
Times	Tuesdays – 7.00 to 10.00 pm
Tutor	Jacqueline Scully
Description	The aims of the programme are to cover aspects of caring for the older person such as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identify a range of specific groups in need of care in the community to include children, adolescents, adults, and older people, those with special needs • Discuss the care in the community needs of these specific groups to include their physical, emotional, social and intellectual needs • Summarise the role of a care worker with a range of different client groups to include specialists working in statutory and voluntary care provision • Discuss the caring qualities necessary for working with different client groups • Examine the skills involved in total patient care • Demonstrate caring qualities when working with people in care situations to include recognition of their requirements for privacy, independence, dignity and positive self-image • Employ a range of interpersonal qualities to include awareness of the different feelings of clients, relatives and colleagues in specific situations and positive responses to the needs of these groups • Give assistance with total patient care in the workplace to include the correct use of basic tools and equipment • Suggest how the care in the community needs of a range of specific groups can be met to include a typical daily routine that aids their physical, social, intellectual, emotional and spiritual well-being • Contribute to planned activities with clients in the workplace • Recognise the therapeutic value of leisure pursuits and social activities for clients. Assessment Technique: Skills Demonstration 40% Assignment 60%
Certification	FETAC Minor Award Care Provision and Practice 5N2705